Welcome and Call to Worship (James 3)

We come looking for guidance on how to be followers.

Followers of Jesus choose making peace over generating disorder.

We want clarity on how to live such that others see Christ in us.

Followers of Jesus are gentle, willing to yield, filled with mercy and crave connection with God.

We want our words and actions to ring of God's love.

Let us in this time of worship draw near to God such that we may follow Jesus with grace and goodness.

Benediction

Our United in Faith Book Club will meet this Wednesday, September 25 at 6:30 pm in person and via zoom. We will discuss the book, Carved in Ebony by Jasmine Holmes. This book features ten African American women who impacted American history as an expression of their faith in God. Join us as we discuss these ten witnesses to courage.

Epworth Work Day Offering

Thank you for your donations to the ministry of Epworth Children's Home. The annual goal for Epworth is for each contributing congregation to donate $6 per member. In her thank you letter, Beth Williams, president, said, "We thank you for reaching our congregational goal."

Killingsworth Golf tournament

Killingsworth, a living center for women healing from addiction, abuse or incarceration, hosts their annual golf tournament on Monday, September 30 at Windermere Golf Club. HSUMC is a proud sponsor of a hole for the tournament.

Thank You for Volunteering!

Many thanks to each of you who agreed to serve on committees or in leadership roles. The Nominations Committee thanks you for saying, "Yes" to the ministry and mission of HSUMC.
