Welcome and Call to Worship John Smith

Not many of us should claim to be experts because we make mistakes both in word and deed.
Not many of us should claim to be in control because controlling our words is like taming a feral cat.
Not many of us should claim to be better than average because our words can both build up and tear down.
Though we cannot claim to be experts,
We come today asking to begin anew with kind,
redemptive words which speak of our love for you.

Welcome Rev. Mark Hering

Today, we welcome Mark as our preacher. He is ordained in the Presbyterian church and serves as pastor at New Hope ARP. Mark is a long-time friend of Heyward St UMC as he partnered with us for combined Holy Week services in 2017 and 2018. When not leading in worship, Mark works in communications. Mark lives with his wife, Karen, and two teenagers in Sherwood Forest.

The Golf Tournament scheduled for September 30 has been canceled. The decision not to move ahead with the event was challenging and painful for the Killingsworth Board. However, they are now focusing on the Gala scheduled for November 14. HSUMC will reserve a table and invite you to attend. The fashion show is returning this year! And the venue is Seawells. The Gala gives us another opportunity to support Killingsworth's ministry to women.
