Welcome

Call to Worship

God has set this day before us,

A day set apart, a day of remembering.

God has set our lives before us,

A span of years in which we love, learn, and serve.

God has set God's call upon our hearts,

So that we might receive and share God's love.

Let us worship God.

Honoring Our Loved Ones

With thankful hearts, we remember the witness to faith of those who have passed to eternal life. Believing each of them carried a unique, dynamic light, we remember them by lighting a candle in their honor.

For the lighting of the candles, please come forward and receive a match from Dani. Ignite the match with the Christ candle and then light a large candle. Give the match back to Dani and return to your seat. After the names are called, the table is open for any who wish to remember a loved one by lighting a candle.

You Did It! We contributed 100% of our 2023 apportionments to SCUMC. When our resources are joined with those of our sister churches, we fund vital ministries in SC as well as worldwide. Thank you for giving. It makes a difference.
