

HEYWARD STREET UMC

October 27, 2024
www.heywardst.church

Welcome and Call to Worship

When we focus on what we don't have,
rather than what we do,

let us be reminded of the peace you freely give.

When we have the power to speak on behalf of others,

let us not be silent.

When we are offered freedom from that which binds
our souls,

let us choose acceptance over anger.

When we have the opportunity to encourage,
rather than judge,

let us offer the peace we have freely received. Amen.

Song Great Things Praise Team

Scripture II Kings 5:1-19 Pew Bible p 336

Receiving of the Offering

Sermon And here comes the "but" Rev. Blom

Song Wonderful Merciful Savior Praise Team

Prayers of the People and Lord's Prayer

Closing Song God be the Glory Praise Team

Having It All, but...

A recent news article shared the tragic death of a music star who fell from a balcony. A gifted singer with privilege and wealth, he was numbing himself with addictive substances. Surely, he had it all. However, here comes the but. He had it all, but maybe the price of fame was too great. For Naaman, he had power and authority, but he was shunned for a skin disorder. The but in our story reminds us of the brokenness we all carry.

Tickets are on sale for "Putting on the Ritz", an evening of food, music, fashion, and silent auction. This gala, supporting Killingsworth's ministry to women, will be November 14 at Seawells from 6:00-9:00 pm.

Bill and Brenda wish to thank our Heyward Street family for their compassionate care during our recent health concerns. Every card, call, text, visit, and meal provided made us feel loved and valued. We love and appreciate you.

Volunteers Needed on October 29

Welcome Table at Washington St UMC

11:10 am – 12:45 pm

Sign up using QR code

All Saints Sunday is next week, November 3. We will honor the lives of Barbara Biddy and John Melton Thompson. For these who have joined the church triumphant, we give thanks for their witness to faith.